LOCAL NEWS.

THE EBB TIDE. - There is, according to the poet, "a tide in the affairs of men, which taken at the flood, leads on to fortune." But, it is, just at this time, in Alexandria, "ebb tide." However, times and tides change. It cannot always be ebb tide with us. Take courage, then, and exercise patience, with all the endurance of which you are capable, oh! ye men of business, ye mechanics, manufacturers, tradesmen, and lawyers. [We include editors: but for the most obvious reasons, exclude doctors The latter, we hope, will all grow rich, with the prevalence of general health and make money without much work.) The present state of things might reasonably have been calculated upon; and that has come to pass, which prudent men should have foreseen, under the circumstances. After the desolation for four years, of the whole country with which we traded; after the change induced by the war in the direction of railroad commerce; after the impoverishment of the farmers who traded with this place, who could have reasonably expected an instantaneous revival of the fortunes of our city? We must wait for the earth to yield its stores; for crops to be gathered; for new avenues and sources of prosperity in the cultivation of small farms, and the establishment of manufactures. We know how hard it is to wait, and how hope deferred sickens the heart. But, again, we say, courage! Moral courage is the highest exhibition of true bravery and nobleness of soul. We have suffered for four years; let us, if it must be, suffer for a year or two more- all together-as a band of brothers -helping one another-forbearing from oppression-encouraging each other; and the flood to fortune!"

SUSPENDED. - Mayor Latham, on Saturday last, suspended from his position, as Superintendent of the Night Watch, Capt. James Walsh, in consequence of his having failed to recognize the authority of the Mayor to issue an order directing him to reinstate Night Watchman James Swann, who had been suspended. Supposing that Capt. Walsh would likewise refuse so obey his order in respect to his own suspension also, the Mayor summoned a special police force to be at the Watch House at ten o'clock last Saturday night, to execute any orders he might see fit to issue, but, the Captain, though denying the authority of the Mayor to suspend him, at the instance of friends, who were standing by, submitted and left the Watch House-not however until after the security for his appearance on Thursday, for Mayor had ordered him to be arrested and re-examination, appointed by the Mayor, Superintendent of the Watch, pro tempore.

> Long Bridge.—On Saturday last, B. B. French, Commissioner of Public Buildings in Washington, gave an order to Messrs. Quigley, Wells, and Dungan, lessees of the Alexandria Canal, to proceed with the repair of the Long Bridge; and to morrow morning such a force will be put on the work as will insure its completion within a fortnight. As soon as the repairs to this bridge are completed the travel over the Aqueduct will be permanently obstructed and stopped, in order that opportunity be allowed workmen to repair that structure preparatory to its return to its legitimate usea portion of the Alexandria Canal.

As Mrs. Murtaugh, whose house on the Washington turnpike was robbed a week or so ago, and who was shot on that occasion by the robbers, was crossing the bridge over the Potomac last Saturday evering, an attempt was made by a party of negroes who were collected on the bridge to push her overboard, in order, as is reported, to prevent her from giving evidence at the trial of those negroes who have been arrested for committing the outrage.

A man brought up here, last week, a small cargo of sheep's head fish, fresh and fine. For some cause or other, he was told, that if he sold his fish here, he would have to pay a tax of $20-and he immediately hoisted sail, and went to Washington. In that market, these fish sold for 30 cents a piece.

A fine load of salt water taylors, &c., reached the wharf this morning in a vessel. They were bought up at once by the fish hucksters, and offered for sale, in the market, an hour afterwards at 50 cents per bunch of three small

Quite a disturbance was created in the suburb of the city, known as Petersburg, yesterday evening, by the conduct of a drunken negro, who was throwing bricks and flourishing a revolver about there in a furious manner. He was arrested and confined, but not until he had succeeded in cutting, with a knife, the back of a negro named Charles Smith.

RECOVERED .- Mr. Samuel O. Baggett, who was caught in a wagon wheel last week, and dragged a considerable distance, by a runaway horse, near Camp Distribution, has so far recovered as to be able to walk about the streets. Mr. Edelen, who was hurt at the same time, has also been out.

Council. - A called meeting of the City Council, will be held to-might to take into consideration the embroglio at present existing between the Mayor of the city and the Superintendent of the night watch.

There will be a temperance meeting in this city to-morrow evening, at eight o'clock, at the Methodist Episcopal Church. Addresses will tide will come again! and then, may it "lead be delivered by the Hons. Hiram Price and D. Galloway.
